Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's response filed on April 27, 2006 is acknowledged. Claims 6, 7, 10, 11 and 15-18 are pending and under consideration. Claims 1-5, 8, 9 and 12-14 have been canceled.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in the prior Office Action.

Rejection Withdrawn

1. In view of applicants' response the rejection of claims 6-14 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph on page 3, paragraph 3 is withdrawn.

Rejection Maintained

2. The rejection of claims 15-18 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ubbink et al is maintained for the reason set forth in the previous office action on page 5, paragraph 4.

The rejection was on the ground that Ubbink et al discloses a probiotic delivery system. Ubbink et al disclose that suitable probiotics for use in the composition include but are not limited to yeast such as Saccharomyces and bacteria such as the genera Bifidobacterium, Streptococcus, Lactococcus and Lactobacillus. Moreover, Ubbink et al disclose that Lactobacillus farciminis is a probiotic strain that may be selected (0057). Ubbink et al disclose that the present invention provides a particulate food, food additive, supplement or pharmaceutical product (0021). Lastly, Ubbink et al disclose that foodstuffs such as fermented milk products that contain probiotics are commercially available (0004). Claim limitations such as "for the treatment of pathologies of the digestive tube" are being viewed as limitations of intended use. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the art. See In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 458.

Since the Office does not have the facilities for examining and comparing applicants' composition with the composition of the prior art, the burden is on applicant to show a novel or unobvious difference between the claimed product and the prior art. See In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 195 USPQ 430 (CCPA 1977) and In re Fitzgerald et al., 205 USPQ 594.

Art Unit: 1645

Applicant urges that a) the subject matter of claims 15-18 is entitled to the priority of FR 02/03891 and b) the priority date of March 28, 2002 predates the U.S. effective filing date of March 12, 2003.

The examiner would like to acknowledge applicants' certified translation of foreign application FR 02/03891. The instant application has a priority date of March 28, 2002. The examiner would like to note that Ubbink et al has a foreign priority date of March 12, 2002, which predates applicants' priority date.

Conclusion

3. Claims 6, 7, 10 and 11 are free of the prior art.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
